Dear Daniel :

Thank you for attending the 45-Hour Salespersons Post Licensing course sponsored by the Northeast Florida Association of REALTORS®, Real Estate School.

Attached is your grade report, which verifies your successful completion of this course. Per the Department of Business and Professional Regulations you must retain this grade report as proof of your successful completion of the post-license education requirements for at least two (2) years following the end of the renewal period for which the education is claimed. Failure to provide this proof when your application for license renewal is audited or furnishing false or misleading information regarding compliance with said requirements shall be grounds for disciplinary action against the licensee.

A passing grade for this course is 75%; you received a grade of 94. If you have any questions please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Kandice Dickover, M.S.
